Trominster Lee 15th 1843 Dear Mins Chapmen Isend you some energneen for hummy it is not pretty, but the hest geould get, I have not had have to weath it, a pant of this is from more thinkall of Sunenbury, Ishall send our things for a table next monday, I fear it will be too late to send them, but I could not formily get them ready before, I cumot get any one to take hold with me and finish them, It will not be possible for me to come down, you can do as you please about furnishing a lable particularly for Seon. we shall have something like forty fine dollars worth of anticles, ruhen they are ready, Thave in my possession now enough material, that different persons have furnished to increase the amount to 60 dollars, but gearnot ruse help for love on money, I now have to sit up till one oclock at night to get them neady, This will account for my tardiness every one I have asked to assist with one or two exceptions has nepleed to there is time enough se, this has been the word all the fall. I am at times almost disheartened, when I see what

There to tao, with my poor fuble eyes, & my lette ones to eave for, I find it next to an impossibility for me to complete the work, The Fain opens a weeks cardien than I experted.

n haste yours

196

39 Jumes Street Boston In humi hi Chopman It. Drake 1843 m. 49.2.19.88